Burntsand Nominated for Canadian Channel Awards Collaboration Solution of the Year Award

Toronto, ON. September 25, 2008 – Burntsand, Inc. (Burntsand) (TSX: BRT), a leading North American provider of Integrated Information Management Solutions, was named a finalist today for the Best Collaborative Solution Award from the CDN Channel Elite Awards. The Channel Elite Awards showcase the top solutions, innovative marketing initiatives and recognizes the outstanding achievements of Canadian IT solution providers.

The solution is an example of Burntsand's Integrated Information Management approach. Having several complimentary practices working together provides a total solution. Burntsand implemented an application submission portal, a case management system, a business information repository for internal use as well as an automated financial reporting solution. This solution saves the client time when accessing information while increasing the access window and increases information transparency which mitigates risk.

"This type of large-scale project showcases our expertise at understanding, managing and successfully delivering a complex integration and development project on Microsoft's industry leading application platforms" said Marty Glover, Burntsand's CEO, "Burntsand looked at the problems from a business perspective and delivered the right technology and the right solutions to the client using our time tested Time to value delivery methodology."
